

Summer courses with football training

All our English language schools are among the very best language schools for teenagers in the UK (based on British Council Inspections). The British Council inspects all schools, residences and family accommodation for young students

Centres of Excellence

The three schools with football training are all ‘centres of excellence’ based on their British Council inspections.

The British Council inspects:

- English teaching
- English programme
- Free time activities
- Care and supervision (all adults are police checked)
- Accommodation

Your child will:

- Be in a small group – maximum of 15 per class
- Be with students of the same level
- Be in an international group
- Have a qualified, experienced native speaker teacher
- Be in a friendly, caring environment
